Dear Editor,
My hobby is stone polishing. I have stones from Britain, Brazil, Mexico and Australia. Soon I'll be going to live in Canada.
MARK RUSCOE, Bolton.
I'm sure you'll be happy there, pal. No shortage of stones in the Rockies . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,
My cousin lives in the country, and when I visited her she told me she hadn't even HEARD of WHOOPEE!/ SHIVER 'n' SHAKE. So, on my next visit I took her a copy . . . and now she's a regular reader.
DAVID SMITH, Wolverhampton.
Great work, David . . . a true fan! Let's all spread the word about WHOOPEE! . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I enclose a picture of myself and some information. In December I won three cups and three gold medals for swimming. My awards have all been engraved, and I am so proud of them.
SUSAN STREET, Hornchurch.

I bet you are, and quite right, too. Well done . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

One day last year a group of us went to visit the zoo. When we came to the lion house, two of the animals were sprawled out on the ground fast asleep. I then put a penny in a machine that issues information about the lions. Just at that moment one of the lions jumped up in its cage, and my friend's little sister said: "Put another penny in the machine and make the other lion wake up, too!"
CLAIRE ANDERTON, Leigh.
What a girl! I bet you ROARED! . . . Editor.

OSSIE

Hey, mates, have you ever seen that telly ad in which some bloke says: "There's a terrific draught in here!" I couldn't help thinking of it the other day, 'cos Art Editor Mike sat on a strip of double-sided sticky tape and tore the seat out of his trousers!

Dear Ossie,

Recently, I set my train set up in our attic, and I have great fun playing with it. I'm sure you'll be pleased to know that my sister and I both enjoy your comic very much. We think it's great.
TIM PERKINS, Southampton.
Pleased? I'm knocked out, pal. Incidentally, I had a train set myself when I was younger. My Dad INSISTED I should have it, and he STILL plays with it . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

My mother left my baby brother on his own in the living room while she did the washing up. My brother saw what he thought was a fancy bit of paper and he tore it up. When Mum came back into the room, she screamed. That "fancy bit of paper" was a POUND NOTE!
JILL FRANKLAND, Helmsley.
I suppose he wanted something smaller . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

I read in WHOOPEE!/SHIVER 'n SHAKE that you are a BRENTFORD fan. Well, so am I. My favourite players are Dave Simmons and Jackie Graham. So as far as I'm concerned it's UP THE "BEES" — AND WHOOPEE!
STEPHEN RICHARDSON, Feltham.
I like it — I like it! Cheers . . . Ossie.
